

SADIE BOLAN
St. Joseph, IL 61873

OBJECTIVE

- To Intern as a support dog for the clients and staff of Prairie Land Conflict Mediation Center.
- To support mediation as a conflict resolution technique.

EDUCATION

Companion Dog Training Jan 4-Feb 27, 2014
Dog Training Club of Champaign - Urbana
Companion Good Citizen Designation - Anticipated Feb. 27, 2014

Basic Obedience Training - Home School Aug, 2012-Nov, 2013
Skills: Sit, Sit up, Down, Come, Shake hands, Wave and Play ball

AWARDS

None yet, but I am working on being the best dog I can be.
I would consider it an award if I was allowed to Intern at PLCMC

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Canine Role Model 2012-2013
Foster dog training, simple dog etiquette for dogs who were being fostered by my family 2012-2013
I personally taught Kathleen W. (family friend) to not be afraid of dogs. 2013

RELATED EXPERIENCE

Brief office visits, met and made friends with Justin Oreizi, demonstrated curiosity toward client but remained in place when told to stay (even though I really wanted to say hello to the person but Ginny wouldn't let me), elevator ride in elevator with other people, came on call to Ginny when I really wanted to investigate the office. Nov. 7, 2013

LANGUAGES

Universal language of affection

MEMBERSHIPS

TDW (The Dog World)
The Bolan family
I would like to be the founding member of the Prairie Land Conflict Mediation Center Canine Corps

REFERENCES

Justin Oreizi
Renee Cison - Bessie's new owner
Margaret Toniny - Tilt's new owner
Kathleen Walton